

It's not Over

Produced By: Sedacy's Spiritual Insights

World means War between spiritual forces over our souls. Life is not about you and me; it's not about us, We are in the middle of a War, Spiritual battle over our souls.

It's won't matter to God, if we rent or own a house. A person's life is not valued to God by the things he posses. What would you give in exchange for your soul? What does it matter to gain the whole world, and lose your soul?

Why hate, hold malice, live to spite and prevent others from succeeding? Life is short; we will all expire, why heap up treasures and don't help your brother. Husbands and wives who abandon their respective partners saying it's for better, it's not over! Why be a Banker who don't give a damn, using greed in legal terms to enslave, rob, and victimize mainly poor people. It's so easy, Central Bank offer no real protection. Government is busy doing the same thing the banks are doing: hustling poor people.

Why murder your brother today? Tomorrow you'll have to face him alive in the flesh. You'll take endless revenge on each other. You'll pray for death to come relieve your pain, and death shall say "No it's not over"! It would have been easier to forgive your brother. Blessed is he, who comes up in the first resurrection, In the second all wicked will resurrect back to life to meet and face each other, It's not over!

True Love

Produced by: Sedacy's Spiritual Insights

God asks for your heart soul and mind; True love is giving a hundred percent. Giving a hundred percent seals your relationship. Giving less than a hundred is a game of convenience, sex and gifts. Sex is not love. Love is not beauty, for beauty fades away. Sex is a favor, favor could be deceptive. It's not based solely on feelings for feelings comes and goes. Love is a spiritual matter that involves God. To be in love is to share God's goodness; the face of love is nothing evil. True love is sharing God's kindness endlessly, unconditionally with another person. True Love is not changing partners like changing buses. For LOVE and GOD are the same, both are eternal! Love is a giving thing, receivers cannot truly love. God living in you is the key to true love.

True love will never leave you nor forsake you at a time Bank is foreclosing on you. Won't leave you support less, careless if you demise, won't leave silently by e-mail saying good-bye. True Love will be there in famine, drought, sickness, financial problems. True love will not treat you like shit and make sure no one else is good to you! Will never bad mind you nor prevent you while leaving you, will use a condom to protect you. Won't photo your nakedness, weakness, faults to expose, shame and embarrass you. You shouldn't buy love, earn love, win love. Love is a gift from God that is given to us free, even at times when we don't deserve it. Your partner of 100% suddenly becomes snared or trapped and say to you "sorry". True Love doesn't hide behind valid excuses,

True Love drives away all possible reasons to terminate the relationship. If you turn down 100% repentance this means you never truly loved your partner, if you had given 100% you would still be together. Your un-forgiveness is an excuse to move on to greener pastures, continuing the game most pretenders are playing, offering themselves not for love, not for free only showing their nakedness to deceive. Every person who exercises God's forgiveness is of God. If you cannot forgive, you need God in your soul. To seek true love is to seek the righteousness of God Living in the human heart, a person of such should be considered! True love is born of a calculated decision built from good intentions and purity of heart, to share 100% goodness with your dearly chosen beloved base on commitment and dedication. Where your heart is there will your financial support be also. You will make certain sacrifices and go extra miles for your dearly beloved. Ultimate Love will guide your partner into the kingdom of heaven!

Anything less than 100% is selfishness; Selfishness only robs uses and demises your partner, giving less than 100% has no seal of God, no guarantee to grow old together for always and forever. In time the relationship will appear only to have been a joke: Taken a horrible toll on the one who gave of himself more, the other unconcerned and cold. Couldn't express true love even when desired to, only brought forth the offering of selfishness that produces frustration, disappointment, anger which created a pit of unhappiness that trapped and destroyed many good souls. Don't join your happiness to anyone who sold their souls to the devil for convenience. Care less for your success. All that glitters is not gold. Soon you will wonder where is home as you are played as a chess game to Shame.

Unfortunately, HIV/AIDS unsuccessful, failed relationships happen mainly from selfishness, many partners refuse to change and give 100%. You gave all you could give (100%) and still your partner left you; don't stress, God knows what he is doing. In the end things happen for your own good.

God is the originator, the source for true love. God sacrificed his only son to offer salvation to humans. God, by example, gave man 100% love that goes beyond feelings, logical reasoning and human understanding. Unconditional love is given to every person whether we deserve it or not. When we know God, we'll learn not to be blind nor confuse by so-called love but to be practical, not to be taken for fools as we better understand true love is giving all (100%). True love is a spiritual matter, not exactly a sexual experience. Our love and dedication to God reveals our ability to share True Love. The quality of our offering of love is measured by the level of our spirituality.

If you cannot offer true love, it's because you don't know God personally! You cannot offer to share what you don't have. (to have true love is to have God in your soul). To share true love is to share God's kindness, mercies and grace with your chosen dearly beloved Babe! Love and God are ONE same!

Who do they say is Babylon

Produced by: Sedacy's Spiritual Insights

Some say Babylon is the policeman, Some say Babylon is the United States of America.

Babylon is the system that has poisoned the earth With the false worship of God!

Babylon is confusion; Babylon is suppression of the truth, Babylon is blind leading the blind; Babylon is the mother of churches, the abomination of the earth.

*Mother spoke great words against the highest God,
She worn out the saints of the most high God,
Made the whole world believe certain time and laws of God has been changed as she ruled in* her power for twelve hundred and sixty years.

Mother made herself filthy rich selling salvation

On useless pieces of paper that eventually produces frustration anger of nailing 95 pieces of supporting scriptures, that brought an full end of her alms system. She lost her strength in the new power the protestant evangelical movement.

They protested against mother, made agreement with her daughters

and lost the true worship of our heavenly Father.

She Introduced lies, misconception, tradition of men, Passing from one generation to another Reaching the point none of us ask for truth Mother along with her daughters, influence the world Made the earth drink wine of deception, causing confusion

Creating the situation of separation that gave birth to Uncle Sam. Uncle Sam her son,

Will unite with mother to keep her power, lending her his hand strengthening the organization of oppression, against the movement of God's remnant people

Babylon is the Mother of harlots; she is the abomination of the earth. Mother tries to fool the world giving speeches of peace to Muslims when both are one same robber of the believers in God. She united with her son Uncle Sam. Together take the world by storm, exalt them selves to be God, Making rich or be destroyed through their policies, for not participating in worship on the day of Babylon, for not doing so you won't be able to buy, sell and travel. The only way to function freely is to join the majority. She will take on the approaching Prince of Peace who without lifting a hand destroyed Babylon?
